

Continuous Community Service by IEM-YES

by Engr. Roland Ngeow, Engr. Lee Cheng Pay and Engr. Shuhairy Norhisham

THE Institution of Engineers, Malaysia - Young Engineers Section (IEM-YES) recently made a visit to the Palebar Orang Asli Village in Negeri Sembilan. The purpose of the visit was to distribute food to the settlement during the Ramadhan month.

The IEM-YES team was greeted by Tok Batin (the village head) and about 100 villagers upon arriving at the settlement at 3.00 p.m.

During the opening ceremony, Engr. Roland Ngeow, Chairman of the IEM-YES, informed that the visit to the settlement was one of IEM-YES' continuous community service efforts. He also mentioned that the distribution of food was made possible with the kind sponsorship of Ir. Wong.

Engr. Ngeow also took the opportunity to thank Engr. Lee Cheng Pay's father, who lives at a nearby town, for arranging the visit. The latter was also present during the opening ceremony.

After the opening ceremony, Engr. Shuhairy, Engr. Lee Cheng Pay and Sdr. Navinderan joined Engr. Ngeow in

Figure 1: The IEM-YES team being greeted by Tok Batin (second from right) at their community hall

Figure 2: Engr. Ngeow giving the opening speech

Figure 3: Villagers present at the event

Figure 4: Engr. Lee (left), Engr. Shuhairy and Sdr. Navinderan

Figure 5: A group photo with the villagers

presenting packages that contained rice, cooking oil, sugar and canned food to the families at the settlement.

Tok Batin was happy with the visit and he thanked the IEM-YES team for their effort in reaching out to the settlement. As a token of appreciation, the team was presented with a basket full of fresh vegetables planted by the villagers.

The event ended at 4.30 p.m. with the IEM-YES team taking a group photo with the villagers. ■